TRAGEDY : LOVERS FOUND LYING DEAD

What we heard :

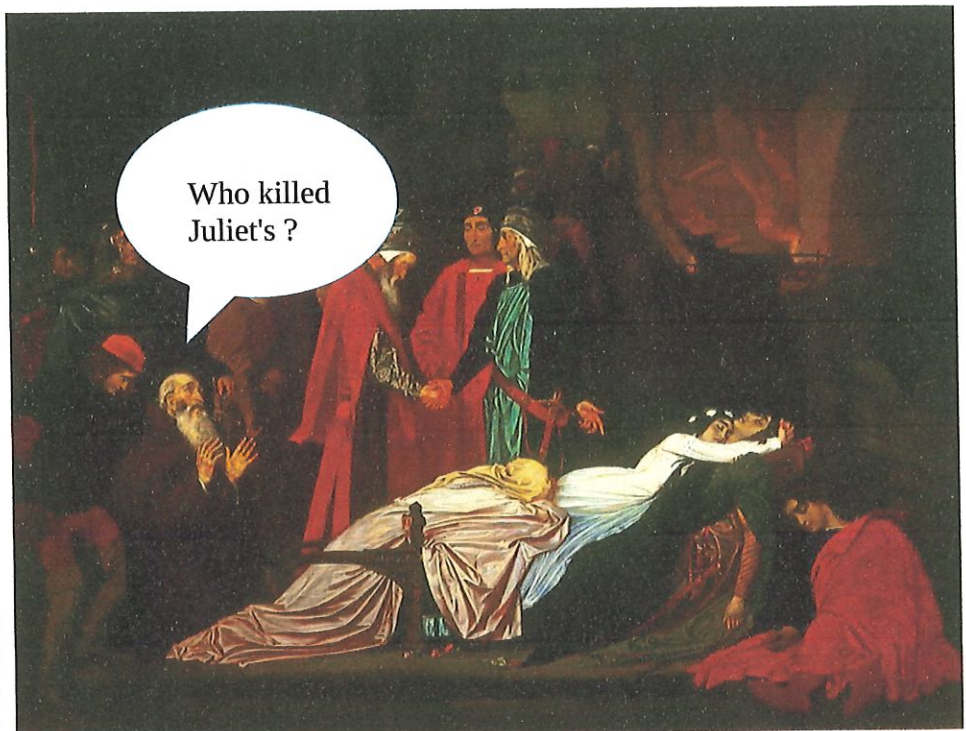

Miss Capulet, Juliet's mother :

« I'm devastated by the news, my daughter, poisoned by her own father. IMPOSSIBLE !

Despite the fact that right now things were a bit strained between them, my husband would never have killed his daughter, he loved her too much for that ».

Prince Escalus :

« I saw several times Mr. Montague confess at church. He looked ~~to~~ worry as if he had something serious on his mind. This strange behavior suggests that the cannot be innocent ».

Juliet and Romeo were found dead, embraced. According to Miss Reighton, Juliet's nurse they had everything to be happy and have a future together. They had planned to get married next month on June 12, 1598.

The nurse who would have saved hundreds of pounds for several months to finance part of the wedding is devastated by the news. She is convinced that it was Mr. Capulet, Juliet's father, who poisoned his own daughter so that the marriage wouldn't take place, because a few days before she caught Mr. Capulet while mixing dubious substances in a beaker.

What will Mr. Capulet say for his defence ?
